

Message Writer Volunteer Job Descriptions

Message Writer

General

Join a different type of volunteer organization.

Come help our ministry grow.

Our ministry is based on a different paradigm way of thinking from most volunteer organization but is completely bible based .We believe that the more you help our ministry grow or the Kingdom of God grow, the more you will grow:

1. Personal fulfillment
2. In Professional knowledge and skills
3. In Lifelong compensation (1 Corinthians 9:13-14)

Come and volunteer for us for two to six months and if you so choose you can eventually move into a paid position. What's even more exciting is that you can also place your life on auto-pilot by developing your own academy (through BAPI) teaching others to do what you love while earning passion income

Message writers will share in the company message royalties

Skills

Must be computer literate. Must have excellent written communications skills with a creative flare

Requirements

- Must successfully complete the company database management training and the message development platform
- Must have the ability to create messages in both poetic or prose formats per the clients requirements
- Must have the ability to input messages into the company database
- Must be able to create musical lyrics and word pictures per the clients message requirements

Interested

Apply on-line at www.shareencouragingvibes.com Click on "Volunteer" and then "Employment Application". Then Apply and submit.

We will contact you for an interview

I _____ Understand and agree that I meet the requirements and can perform the responsibilities of this job and I complete this process by my signature either written or electronic and by applying for the specific job.

Signature _____ Date _____